

International Workshop on

Micro-Econometric Analysis of the Chinese Economy

January 14, 2006

Organized by

School of International Politics, Economics and Business

Aoyama Gakuin University

Place: “Common Room” on the 4th floor of Building #8

Session 1

13:00 - 13:15 Welcome and Introduction

13:15 - 14:00 Li-an Zhou (Peking University)

Ownership, Efficiency, and Firm Survival in Economic Transition: Evidence from a Chinese Science Park

Discussant: Naoki Murakami (Nihon University)

14:00 - 14:45 Yasuyuki Todo (Aoyama Gakuin University)

Knowledge Spillovers from Foreign Direct Investment: Evidence from a Chinese Science Park

Discussant: TBA

14:45 - 15:00 Coffee Break

Session 2

15:00 - 15:45 Qian Wang (the Chinese University of Hong Kong)

State Ownership, Institutional Environment and Auditor Choice: Evidence from China

Discussant: TBA

15:45 - 16:30 Deqiang Liu (Tokyo Gakugei University)

Impacts of the Economic Reform on Firm Size and Production Efficiency: Evidence from the Machine Tool Industry in China

Discussant: Yasuyuki Todo (Aoyama Gakuin University)

16:30 - 16:45 Coffee Break

Session 3

16:45 - 17:30 Hongbin Li (the Chinese University of Hong Kong)

Economic Returns to Communist Party Membership: Evidence from Chinese Twins

Discussant: Katsuji Nakagane (Aoyama Gakuin University)

17:30 - 17:35 Closing Remarks

18:00 - 20:00 Reception at Aogaku Kaikan (located at the eastern edge of the campus)

Workshop coordinator

Yasuyuki Todo, Aoyama Gakuin University

Email: yastodo@sipeb.aoyama.ac.jp